Question Type  Right there	Destination Reader Question types: Is it CLEAR?
Question Type  Right there	Code	Nue	Locate	Explore		Answer	Re-read to check
Right there Who? Give reasons What? True or false When? Statements and multiple choice Main idea/theme. Link summaries to order in text.  Think and search  How do you know? How can you tell? What does this word/phrase tell you about? What is the overall mood of the text and why? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What impressions do you get? Why did? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the Right there Who? What? When? Which? Which? Why?  Think and search  How do you know? What does this word/phrase tell you about? What is the overall mood of the text and why? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Character: What dow know about this character / explain what this description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  Who? Give reasons True or false Summarising Re-read the text Locate through skimming and scanning Re-state information  Inferred information so evidence evidence may not be stated in the text.  You' is often used in these questions. These questions. These questions may require: P - State my point E - Use evidence E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  What impressions do you get? what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  Evaluating  Words like author and	-	Question Stems				Skills	Top tips there What? What? When? Which? Which? Why?  True or false Statements and multiple choice Main idea/theme. Link summaries to order in text.  Think and search  How do you know? How can you tell? What does this word/phrase tell you about? Where do you think this text is set and why? What is the overall mood of the text and why do you think that? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What impressions do you get? What impressions do you get? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Do you think will change their behaviour in the future — use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests — what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  Who?  Summarising  Locate through skimming and scanning Re-state information  Re-state information  Inference Predicting Making links  Making links  These questions. These questions may require: P - State my point E - Use evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the		14 (1 2	T
What? When? Which? Why? What does this word/phrase tell you about? What is the overall mood of the text and why do you think that? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text) Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Do you think will change their behaviour in the future—use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  What oyou know.  Inference Predicting Making links  Skimming and scanning Re-state information  Re-state information  Inference Predicting Making links  Stated in the text.  You' is often used in these questions. These questions. These questions may require: P - State my point E - Use evidence E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Scharacter appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  Skimming and scanning Re-state information  Re-state information  Naking links  Stated in the text.  You' is often used in these.  Predicting Making links  These questions may require: P - State my point E - Use evidence E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Scharacter appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the
When? Which? Which? Why?  Think and search  What does this word/phrase tell you about? What is the overall mood of the text and why do you think that? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Do you think will change their behaviour in the future – use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Who do you know? How can you tell?  Inference Predicting Making links  Whaking links  Ake-state information  Inference Predicting Making links  Whaking links  What in the text.  You' is often used in these questions.  These questions.  These questions may require:  P - State my point  E - Use evidence  E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  What this description suggests — what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  Words like author and	there					Jannariania	_
Think and search  How do you know? How can you tell? What does this word/phrase tell you about? Where do you think this text is set and why? What is the overall mood of the text and why do you think that? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What impressions do you get? Why did? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Do you think will change their behaviour in the future – use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  Inference Predicting Making links  Stated in the text.  You' is often used in these questions. These questions. These questions may require: P- State my point E- Use evidence E- Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Evaluate  Words like author and				Statements and multiple choice
Think and search  How do you know? How can you tell?  What does this word/phrase tell you about?  Where do you think this text is set and why?  What is the overall mood of the text and why do you think that?  What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know?  What impressions do you get? Why did?  What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there?  Do you think will change their behaviour in the future – use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  Inference Predicting  Making links  Making links  Making links  These questions.  These questions.  These questions.  These questions may require:  P - State my point  E - Use evidence  E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Words like author and	E A	Which?		Main idea/theme.
What does this word/phrase tell you about? Where do you think this text is set and why? What is the overall mood of the text and why do you think that? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What impressions do you get? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Do you think will change their behaviour in the future – use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  What does this word/phrase tell you about? Making links Making links  Making links  Making links  Making links  Making links  Howaking links  Making links  Predicting Making links  Making links  Howaking links  Making links  Predicting Making links  Howaking links  Now is eitence may not be stated in the text.  You' is often used in these questions.  These questions.  These questions.  These questions whe the sequestions these questions and these questions and these questions and the equipment of the proof of the text.  You' is often used in these.  You' is often used in the text.  You' is often used in these questions.  These questions.  These questions and these questions and these questions and these questions.  These questions and these questions and these questions and these questions and the equipment of the text.  You' is often used in the text.		Why?		Link summaries to order in text.
Where do you think this text is set and why? What is the overall mood of the text and why do you think that? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What impressions do you get? Why did? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Do you think will change their behaviour in the future – use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  Making links  Stated in the text.  'You' is often used in these.  These questions.  These questions may require:  P - State my point E - Use evidence E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)	Think and	-					Inferred information so
What is the overall mood of the text and why do you think that? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What impressions do you get? Why did? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Do you think will change their behaviour in the future – use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  What is the overall mood of the text and why do you think these questions. These questions. These questions. These questions. These questions where ye vidence E - Explain why the evidence E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Water and these questions. These questions where equire: P - State my point E - Use evidence E - Explain why the evidence is there? In what evidence is the ev	search		· •	•		_ that? What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What impressions do you get? Why did? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Do you think will change their behaviour in the future – use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  these questions. These questions may require: P - State my point E - Use evidence E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Words like author and		-		•	Making links
What is the author/poet's point of view and how do you know? What impressions do you get? Why did? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Do you think will change their behaviour in the future – use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  These questions may require: P - State my point E - Use evidence E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  We description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Words like author and			overall mood of	the text and why do you th know? What impressions do you get? Why did? What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there? Do you think will change their behaviour in the future – use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  require: P - State my point E - Use evidence E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Evaluate  Words like author and			author/poet's pe	oint of view and how do yo		·
What evidence is there that? (based on whole text)  Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there?  Do you think will change their behaviour in the future — use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests — what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  Evaluating  E - Use evidence  E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Evaluate  Words like author and				·		•
Prediction: What might happen next and what evidence is there?  Do you think will change their behaviour in the future — use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests — what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  Evaluating  E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  E- Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  E - Explain why the evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Words like author and		What impre	essions do you ge	et? Why did?			P - State my point
there?  Do you think will change their behaviour in the future — use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests — what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  Evaluating  evidence backs up my point (only in 3 mark questions)  Evaluations  Words like author and		What evide	nce is there that	? (based on whole text)			E - Use evidence
Do you think will change their behaviour in the future – use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  Evaluating  point (only in 3 mark questions)  Point (only in 3 mark questions)  Words like author and			What might hap	pen next and what evidence		• use evidence?  Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate  How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the  Evaluating  Questions)  Questions)  Words like author and							• •
Character: What do we know about this character / explain what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the Evaluating Words like author and		_	_	their benaviour in the futur	e –
what this description suggests – what clues from actions, description or dialogue are there? In what ways might this character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the Evaluating Words like author and				w about this character / ex	nlain		questionsy character appeal to the reader?  Evaluate How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the Evaluating Words like author and				•
Evaluate How does the author's/poet's use of language effect the Evaluating Words like author and		description	or dialogue are t	here? In what ways might	this character a	ppeal to the read	der?
reader? Summarising   writer give clues	Evaluate reader?		and Community		Summarising	writer give clues.
How has the author/poet used figurative language effectively?  Some questions may require:			e autnor/poet us	ea rigurative language			,
Which words create the mood of the text?  P - State my point		•	ls create the mo	od of the text?			·
Does the organisation of this text improve the effect on the E - Search for evidence					the		• • reader?						E - Explain why the
Why do you think the author/poet has presented this text in evidence backs up my		Why do you	think the autho	r/poet has presented this to		evidence backs up my
this way? point (only in 3 mark		,					•
Give 2 impressions this (quote) gives you of? questions)		-				,
Vocabulary Which word tells us that / most closely matches the Clarifying Re-read the text	Vocabulary			/ most closely matches t	he	Clarifying meaning of the word?  What does the word mean in this context/sentence?  Locate through		_		maan in this contact/cont		•
What does the word mean in this context/sentence? skimming Find and copy the word that means	45 €					•
						State word or definition
			30				using sentence context.			